Medical University of South Carolina
Department of Rehabilitation Sciences
Communication Sciences and Disorders

Supervisory Feedback Checklist

STUDENT:

CLIENT:

DATE:

A. Therapy Techniques	ABOVE AVERAGE "4"	ACCEPTABLE "3"	INCONSISTENT "2"	UNACCEPTABLE "1"	NOT OBSERVED
1. Clinician communicated objectives to client.
2. Objectives were appropriate for client.
3. Methods were varied and appropriate to objectives.
4. Directions were explained clearly and meaningfully.
5. Appropriate models and cues/prompts were presented.
6. Adequate response rate was elicited.
7. Behavior was managed appropriately.
8. Time was used effectively.
9. Appropriate rapport/ interaction.
10. Good flexibility or branching tasks were used to adapt client's performance level.
11. Language was appropriate to client's level.
B. Evaluative and Reinforcement Techniques
12. Data collection methods were used effectively.
13. Responses were discriminated and evaluated accurately.
14. Reinforcement was consistent and meaningful.
15. Adequate use of informative feedback.
16. Clinician used self-evaluation procedures.
C. Materials
17. Prepared and well organized.
18. Appropriate to objective and level of client.
19. Effective control of visual field.
D. Professional Conduct
20. Clinician exhibited professionalism with client and others.

E. Comments