Stephanie V. Taylor, MPS, Director, Diversity and Inclusion, MUSC Health

As Director of Diversity and Inclusion at MUSC Health, Stephanie directs the strategies that educate and engage providers and care team members on the importance of culturally competent care and works to ensure that diverse patients not only receive high quality care but also are provided with exceptional care experiences. She advocates for inclusive work environments for all care team members and collaborates with a wide range of community organizations to address health care disparities that exist in the broader community. Stephanie leads the Interpretation and Pastoral Care Services Departments at MUSC. She received a Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences/Community Health from Hunter College, City University of New York, and a Master of Professional Studies in Health Services Administration/Hospital Administration from The New School for Social Research in New York City.
