At the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Better assess, diagnose, and treat mental health disorders with innovations in technology.
- Identify specific technological applications (e.g. telemedicine and mobile phone apps) to aid in the assessment and treatment of mental health disorders.
- Implement technology to increase access of services for individuals with mental health disorders.
- Increase treatment adherence and augment therapeutic techniques for individuals with a wide array of mental health disorders.

This conference is designed for:

- Psychiatrists
- Psychologists
- Social Workers
- Researchers
- Neurologists
- Licensed Practicing Counselors
- Urgent Care Physicians
- Family Medicine Physicians
- OB/GYNs
- Internalists
- Primary Care Physicians
- Other Healthcare Professionals

Over the past three decades, important technologies have transformed mental health care. To recognize our achievements and advancements in science and clinical practice, our 2017 conference will focus on technology and mental health. Held in beautiful downtown Charleston at MUSC’s new Bioengineering Auditorium during Charleston’s premier cultural event, Spoleto Festival USA, this conference brings together psychiatrists, psychologists, counselors and social workers, as well as researchers and other healthcare professionals, for two days of networking and education.

Registration Information

Registration fee includes up to 12 CME/CEU credits, digital conference materials, continental breakfasts, lunch (Thursday only) and breaks each day. Two-Day and Thursday Only registration include a post-conference reception with hors d’oeuvres, refreshments, and networking on Thursday evening.

Registration fees are transferable from one registrant to another. Please note that the deadline to register for this event is Tuesday, May 30, 2017 at 11:59 p.m. EST. No refunds will be offered after that time. Prior to May 30, 2017 any refund requests will be subject to a $100 administrative fee. If you do not receive a confirmation letter within two weeks of registering, please call (843) 792-0175 to ensure your registration has been received.

Venue and Parking

All sessions of the conference will be held on the beautiful MUSC campus in the state-of-the-art Bioengineering Building, in the heart of downtown Charleston.

Please plan to arrive early. Traffic into Charleston can be extremely congested and parking around MUSC is limited. It is strongly recommended that you carpool if possible. Parking is available in the MUSC Jonathan Lucas Street Garage (97 Jonathan Lucas Street, not the Roper garage), the Courtenay Drive Garage (21 Courtenay Drive), and the Ashley Rutledge Parking Garage (158 Ashley Avenue). Parking fees are the responsibility of the attendee.

Americans With Disabilities Act

It is the policy of the Medical University of South Carolina not to discriminate against any person on the basis of disabilities. If you need the services of the auxiliary aids mentioned in this act in order to fully participate in this activity, please bring this to our attention upon registering for the event.

Conference Accommodations

Blocks of rooms have been reserved for conference attendees at nearby downtown hotels. Please call the hotel of your choice by Monday, May 1 at 5:00 p.m. to reserve your room(s) and make sure to reference the 30th Annual Update in Psychiatry. Our contracted rate is not guaranteed after this date.
