

DERMATOLOGY

SCOPE OF PRACTICE PGY-2 – PGY-4

PGY-2 & PGY-3

- Perform a complete history and physical examination and develop treatment plan on inpatient hospital dermatology admissions or consultations under the supervision of the attending dermatologist.
- Take call as assigned.
- Treatment of all diseases of the skin and mucous membranes in the Dermatology Clinic under the supervision of the attending dermatologist.
- Review student work-ups in the Dermatology Clinic and assess the student/medical histories and physical examinations.
- Procedures: The following clinical and laboratory procedures may be performed when appropriate under supervision of a qualified attending dermatologist.

Clinical Procedures:

- Skin biopsies (punch, shave, incisional, excisional)
- Chemical facial peels
- Dermabrasion
- Electrosurgery
- Hair transplants
- Incision, skin & subcutaneous
- Laser treatment of skin lesions
- Lip shaves
- Lip wedges
- Local excision lesion, skin & subcutaneous
- Mohs micrographic surgery
- Pinch, split and full thickness skin grafts
- Rotation of skin flaps
- Suture of skin
- Sclerotherapy

DERMATOLOGY

SCOPE OF PRACTICE PGY-2 – PGY-4

- Cryosurgery
- Ultraviolet light therapy
- PUVA therapy
- Patch testing
- Phototesting

Laboratory Procedures

- KOH examination
- Culture and identification of fungi
- Tzanck preparations
- Examination of skin scrapings for scabies, mites, and other ectoparasites
- Examination of skin exudates for bacteria
- Hair counts
- Dermatopathology (diagnosis and interpretation)

PGY-4

- Perform a complete history and physical examination and develop treatment plan on inpatient hospital dermatology admissions or consultations under the supervision of the attending dermatologist.
- Take call as assigned.
- Treatment of all diseases of the skin and mucous membranes in the Dermatology Clinic under the supervision of the attending dermatologist.
- Review student work-ups in the Dermatology Clinic and assess the student/medical histories and physical examinations.
- Chief administrative resident for the program. Responsibilities include:
 - Preparation of on-call schedule
 - Coordinate resident clinic assignments and vacation schedules
 - Organize the weekly patient-centered Grand Rounds
 - Student teaching and evaluation

DERMATOLOGY

SCOPE OF PRACTICE PGY-2 – PGY-4

- Procedures: The following clinical and laboratory procedures may be performed when appropriate under supervision of a qualified attending dermatologist.

Clinical Procedures:

- Skin biopsies (punch, shave, incisional, excisional)
- Chemical facial peels
- Dermabrasion
- Electrosurgery
- Hair transplants
- Incision, skin & subcutaneous
- Laser treatment of skin lesions
- Lip shaves
- Lip wedges
- Local excision lesion, skin & subcutaneous
- Mohs micrographic surgery
- Pinch, split and full thickness skin grafts
- Rotation of skin flaps
- Suture of skin
- Sclerotherapy
- Cryosurgery
- Ultraviolet light therapy
- PUVA therapy
- Patch testing
- Phototesting

Laboratory Procedures

- KOH examination
- Culture and identification of fungi
- Tzanck preparations
- Examination of skin scrapings for scabies, mites, and other ectoparasites
- Examination of skin exudates for bacteria
- Hair counts

DERMATOLOGY

SCOPE OF PRACTICE PGY-2 – PGY-4

- Dermatopathology (diagnosis and interpretation)