Student name:

This course will have 9 class meetings that will consist of discussion and limited presentation of concepts. Class participation will comprise 40% of your grade in the course. For each course presentation 1-9, answer the questions below, and submit your completed worksheet at the next class meeting:

1. Blockbuster drug being discussed (generic name, trade name):

2. Concepts discussed during the class period:

3. Use bullet points to describe below how these concepts were applied to the drug named in #1:

4. Describe the scientific outcomes that were sought by applying each of the drug discovery techniques from today's presentation:

5. List the sources of information you used to find the information you provided above.