RECOMMENDATIONS AND INFORMATIONAL REPORTS OF THE PRESIDENT.

OLD BUSINESS: None.

NEW BUSINESS:

Dr. Sothmann asked Dean Pisano to introduce the guest speaker. Dean Pisano was pleased to introduce Dr. Tom Keane, Chair of the Department of Urology who also holds the Brockmann Chair in Urologic Oncology. He obtained his medical degree in Dublin Ireland. He moved to Duke where he did his urologic residency. He then joined the faculty at Emory University and came to MUSC as Chair of Urology in 2002. Dr. Keane has had an illustrious career with too many honors to mention. His latest honor is to be appointed Editor-in-Chief of Urology Today and in that role he will be writing a monthly column where he tells the world about the latest developments in urology.

Dr. Keane provided a current overview of the Department of Urology. He reviewed the goals and philosophy of the department presenting specifics of patients care, education and research. He discussed the faculty practice, locations and highlighted the urology department faculty and staff. He reviewed research within the department as well as ongoing trials.

Dr. Keane called on Dr. Sandip Prasad to present on PSA screening. Dr. Prasad talked about one of the most controversial topics in healthcare today – PSA screening. After reviewing important statistics with regard to prostate cancer he concluded with his beliefs about screening for the disease. The difficulty lies in distinguishing the rapid, fatal cancers and the slow harmless ones. Overdiagnosis and overtreatment of prostate cancer is common. Testing helps many men who may otherwise have died from prostate cancer, but also diagnoses and treats cancer that would otherwise never have caused harm and there are side effects to treatment. He stated his final thoughts about screening:

- Routine screening for men less than age 55 who are at average risk need not be screened.
- Men ages 55-70, one death from prostate cancer will be saved for 1,000 screened. This should form the basis of discussion with a patient’s doctor to consider the benefits and side effects.
- Men over 70 with less than a 10-15 year life expectancy need not be screened.
- Men should have both a PSA test and a DRE if they are screened.

Dr. Keane concluded by emphasizing that with the expertise of the faculty and staff at MUSC, there is no need for anyone to travel out-of-state for urologic care.

Mr. Jim Fisher reported for Dr. Stephen Lanier. Year-to-date research funding totals $92M which is ~$4M behind last year's numbers at this time.

MUSC’s programs in Neurosciences and in Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences continue to be recognized with significant, highly competitive awards. For FY12 NIH funding, the Department of Neurosciences ranked 6th nationally with a total of $10M, and Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences ranked 7th nationally with a total of $26M. Two examples of exceptional achievement by these programs include the recognition of Raymond F. Anton, M.D. with one of only five Senior Scientist Awards from the National Institute of Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism. This prestigious award provides recognized and well-respected leaders in alcohol, drug abuse, or related research with protected time to continue and to enhance their research programs and mentor of junior investigators. Secondly, Peter W. Kalivas, Ph.D. Chairman of Neurosciences, was awarded the third renewal of the Neurobiology of Addiction Research Center (~$1M/yr direct costs) by the National Institute of Drug Abuse.

Mr. Fisher reported on two additional significant awards. Dr. Ed Jauch was awarded the "South Carolina Collaborative Alliance for Stroke Trials (SC-CoAST)" from the National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke, which is a unique collaboration between the Medical University of South Carolina, the University of South Carolina, and the Greenville Heath System. The College of Nursing received an anonymous gift of $206,100 earmarked for an endowed chair, as well as a gift $100,000 from a Greenville couple designated for the College of Nursing Building Fund.

Mr. Fisher also noted that the Student Legacy Committee, a subcommittee of the College of Pharmacy’s Building Leadership Committee, made up of members of the class of 2014, hosted the College’s first “Donor Appreciation Week” in October during which time they wrote approximately 150 notes to donors thanking them for their support of the College.

Mr. Fisher shared exciting news about the College of Health Professions which has received a gift of $1 million from the Christie Family Foundation. The gift is the largest gift ever received by the College and will be used to establish the first endowed chair. Mr. Fisher recognized Dean Lisa Saladin and her development director for their valuable efforts.

Mr. Fisher noted that they are currently recruiting for an Executive Director of Alumni Affairs, and hope to have the position filled within the next 6 months.

The next meeting of the MUSC Board of Visitors has been scheduled for May 2, 2014, which is two weeks prior to the May meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Fisher described the Presidential Scholars Program, created and nurtured by Dr. Greenberg. The Office of Development has been leading a special initiative for on-going support of the program.
