RECOMMENDATIONS AND INFORMATIONAL REPORTS OF THE PRESIDENT

OLD BUSINESS: None.

NEW BUSINESS:

Statement: Dr. Cole called on Dr. Pat Cawley who introduced Dr. Paul Lambert, Chair of the Department of Otolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery at MUSC. Dr. Cawley informed the Board that Dr. Lambert has been involved in hearing-related research throughout his career and has published seminal work and has also received several awards. He is widely-known for his work in otology-neurotology and has published over 140 publications. Dr. Lambert is widely respected for his leadership.

Dr. Lambert’s presentation began with the historical perspective of Head and Neck Surgery (HNS) and the national excellence established at MUSC. Dr. Lambert reported that from the 1940s to 1960s that HNS was primarily a medical focus and limited surgery. From the 1970s to present, fellowship training began, driving sub-specialization and many medical/surgical firsts. HNS has seven major subspecialties. Some firsts in HNS include cochlear implants; microscopic surgery and facial reanimation. Dr. Lambert commented that the development of HNS at MUSC has paralleled the national expansion of the specialty. Dr. Lambert also gave an overview of the department’s leadership and faculty positions and also the residency and fellowship programs. He shared images of successful surgical outcomes from both pediatric and adult patients. He concluded his presentation noting that Otolaryngology – Head & Neck Surgery was voted #1 in South Carolina and the Southeast and #11 in the Nation by US News and World Report’s Best Hospitals for 2017-2018. Dr. Cole thanked Dr. Lambert for his informative presentation and also for his outstanding leadership and stated that this concluded his report.
