Item 8. General Report of the Vice President for Research

Dr. Kathleen T. Brady reported on MUSC's unaudited funding data for FY2017. Funding levels are slightly lower than the previous year. Although federal funding levels display a slight increase, corporate funding is down by approximately $10M.

Dr. Brady discussed the new Office of Clinical Research, an initiative which started about a year ago to bring in more corporate funding to MUSC through clinical trials. Collaborations with industry partners allow MUSC to offer patients cutting edge treatments. MUSC has the largest clinical trials operation in the state. Offering clinical trials not only draws patients to MUSC, it is also a standard mission of academic medical centers. During a time when National Institutes of Health funding is stagnant, revenue generated through clinical trials can support faculty and staff salaries, provide institutional support by way of indirect costs, and deliver income through billable, standard of care services offered to research patients. At MUSC, research revenue from clinical trials has historically represented 25% of the awarded amount. In order to increase this amount, the new Office of Clinical Research provides prospective reimbursement analysis for every clinical trial at MUSC which will improve revenue collections through proper billing, invoicing and collections. The Office of Clinical Research will also provide study feasibility analysis and assistance with study recruitment.

Recommendation of Committee: That the report be received as information.
Item 9. General Report of the Executive Director of the MUSC Foundation for Research Development

The team has a 30% success rate for SBIR/STIR applications compared to the national average of 13%. In September, they anticipate submitting more than 10 new applications.

The Foundation for Research Development has focused efforts on more pre-planning with investigators on their disclosures. Therefore, the number of disclosures has reduced slightly, but the quality of disclosures has improved. They average 100 disclosures per year which is 20% above the industry standard (for an institution the size of MUSC, about 80 disclosures per year is expected). In the upcoming fiscal year, Mr. Rusnak anticipates the Foundation for Research Development to generate revenue of $1M. They will be focusing on 8-9 projects in areas such as cancer immunotherapy, fibrosis, healthcare IT, and a new medical device.

If a faculty member is rated as below in a majority of applicable performance categories, s/he will receive a "below" overall evaluation. Each year, the faculty member must be made aware of specific requirements to attain an adequate annual review so that he or she is given the chance to meet these specific requirements.
