MUSC and Charleston School of Law students interested in exploring complex social, political, and human issues of broad interest to healthcare professionals and biomedical researchers are invited to apply to become a Presidential scholar.

The Dr. Raymond S. Greenberg Presidential Scholars Program is a yearlong interprofessional experience in a format that maximizes student participation and interaction with selected faculty scholars from each college.

- Completed applications due Wednesday, February 28, 2018 by 12:00 PM
- All colleges will be represented based on eligibility
- Further information and applications can be found at: http://academicdepartments.musc.edu/pres_scholars/

Visit our Website and check out the 1. Presidential Scholars Program Recruitment Video & Slide Deck, 2. the Presidential Scholars Program Brochure, and 3. explore Past Projects where the scholars collaborated with a community partner on a community responsive project related to the year's theme.

Hazel L. Breland, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA, Director | brelandh@musc.edu