MUSC’s news story from July 11th, 2017:

Background

Chris Cull - Founder of Inspire by Example (Director, Producer)

Chris Cull is a filmmaker and the founder of Inspire by Example (http://www.inspirebyexample.ca/) as well as a recovering addict. In 2014 he bicycled across Canada, from Victoria, BC, to St. John’s, Newfoundland raising awareness about prescription drug abuse. He filmed his journey, and interviewed local community leaders, patients, and people in recovery along the way.

Chris is a nationally recognized public speaker and has advised numerous institutions and organizations on issues around prevention and treatment of drug abuse, including the Canadian Minister of Health, the Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse, and the National Advisory Council on Prescription Drugs.
