

Grant Writing and Review Seminar Series

Date	Seminar Title and Description	Seminar Leaders
9/22/06	Anatomy and Physiology of a Grant Application This seminar will review the various elements of a grant application, their purpose, and useful tips for preparation.	Jennifer Shambrook, MHA
10/06/06	Computer Aided Funding Searches This seminar will take place in the library computer lab	Karen Harper
10/20/06	Ethical Issues: Intellectual Property This interactive seminar will view and discuss a short AAAS vignette on intellectual property rights.	Ronald Acierno, Ph.D. Anouk Grubaugh, Ph.D.
11/03/06	Career Development Awards A panel of Career Development Awardees and Applicants will discuss their experiences with the Career Development Award application process, tips for success, and an overview of Career Development Award mechanisms.	Panel Discussion: Carla Danielson, Ph.D., Matthew Carpenter, Ph.D., Kevin Gray, M.D., & Anouk Grubaugh, Ph.D. (Waldrop-waiting for reply)
11/17/06	Ethical Issues: Should the “mentally ill” be in a special protected status for Human Subjects Research? Presentation followed by group discussion.	John Oldham, M.D.
12/01/06	Reviewing the Peer Review System This seminar will describe the peer review system, the role of the reviewer, writing for ease of review, and the benefits of volunteering as a reviewer.	Daniel Smith, Ph.D.
12/15/06	Ethical Issues: Authorship Practices This interactive seminar will view and discuss a short AAAS vignette on authorship issues.	Carla Danielson, Ph.D. & Jennifer Shambrook, MHA
1/05/07	Reviewing and Critiquing the Literature This seminar will discuss the techniques to be used in reviewing scientific literature, assessing individual journal articles, and selecting reference literature in grant applications.	Matthew Carpenter, Ph.D.
1/19/07	Ethical Issues: Research Misconduct This interactive seminar will view and discuss a short AAAS vignette on various research misconduct issues.	Carla Danielson, Ph.D. & Sudie Back, Ph.D.
2/02/07	Research Design: Quantitative Methods	Ashli Sheidow, Ph.D.
2/16/07	Ethical Issues: Animal Use in Research This interactive seminar will review a case and discuss issues related to the considerations that must be made when animals are involved in research.	Lindsay DeVane, Pharm.D.
3/02/07	Writing Specific Aims	Cynthia Swenson, Ph.D.
3/16/07	Ethical Issues: Human Subjects Case Study This interactive seminar will review a case and discuss issues related to the considerations that must be made when human subjects are involved in research.	Ronald Acierno, Ph.D. & Alyssa Rheingold, Ph.D.
4/06/07	Building a Grant Budget	Jennifer Shambrook, MHA
4/20/07	Research Career Success Story Interview with a successful Distinguished Faculty Member to hear the story of the development of their career, advice they would offer to young investigators, and their view of emerging opportunities in research.	Raymond Anton, M.D., Distinguished University Professor and Division Director, CDAP
5/04/07	Writing the Abstract: Distilling the Essence of Your Project to Pique the Interest of the Reviewers	Michael DeArellano, Ph.D.

All sessions are offered from 10-11 a.m. in the Weight Management Center, unless otherwise noted.