

Dr. Singh is a prominent international expert in the mechanism of statins and was the first to study their role in the setting of spinal cord injury.