GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE:

The Grievance Procedure assures fair treatment to permanent employees when disciplinary actions (suspension or termination) are taken. Probationary employees (employees with less than twelve months in a permanent position) do not have grievance rights.

Grievances can not be filed on Oral and Written Warnings.

Employees may contact the Human Resources Department, Compensation/Employee Relations Section for guidance.