The Emergency Generators within the Medical University Complex have been preset to activate automatically in the event of a loss of the primary power source. The complexities of electrical power plant operation are such that only trained personnel shall operate the plant to preclude injury to personnel and damage to equipment. In the event of a loss of primary power, duty personnel shall oversee the generation of emergency electrical power and shall act expeditiously to restore primary power.