

Compost Corrals at 17 Ehrhardt Street.

Campus yard waste is added to the successive corrals. By the time the last one is full, the first is ready to empty and the compost used in the flower beds and campus landscaping projects thus saving on fertilizer costs.

Full Corral: ready to be used as compost

Empty Corral: ready for yard waste