Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the online graduate program at the College of Nursing. The mission of the Medical University of South Carolina College of Nursing is to educate the highest level of practitioners and scholars through lifelong learning, to utilize evidence based practice and research to improve outcomes in health care, and to demonstrate excellence in nursing practice through caring for the community. The College of Nursing continues to be proactive in leading the state and region in advancing the profession, reducing health disparities, and improving health outcomes. In accordance with this mission, we are proud to offer students the opportunity to study with highly qualified and skilled faculty who not only teach, but also conduct research and serve as role models in professional nursing practice.

Please review the MUSC College of Nursing website (www.musc.edu/nursing) for admission requirements. Acceptance decisions will be made in the beginning of March after the January 15th deadline and notifications will be sent in the mail. It is vital to have your application completed before or have all items postmarked by the deadline date in order for your application to be considered complete and reviewed. An application for admission can be found online at http://www.musc.edu/es/application/nurs/index.html. Please read all information carefully before submitting your application.

As you consider this important educational and career decision, if you have further questions about the online graduate program, please contact the MSN/DNP Coordinator at (843) 792-6499. If you have questions concerning the application, admissions process or requirements, please contact the Admissions Specialist for the College of Nursing at (843) 792-8721. All of us at the College of Nursing look forward to working with you as you take the next exciting steps in your nursing career.

Sincerely,

Catherine O. Durham, DNP, FNP-C
Director, MSN/DNP Program
