Accreditation Information
All programs are accredited. Orthopaedics was the first of our programs to go through the ACGME program self-study process. All programs are using Milestones to determine resident and fellow performance within the six ACGME Core Competencies. Milestones are competency-based developmental outcomes (e.g., knowledge, skills, attitudes, and performance) that can be demonstrated progressively by residents and fellows from the beginning of their education through graduation to the unsupervised practice of their specialties.
Graduate Medical Education Committee (GMEC)
(See Appendix II)

Annual Program Evaluations (APE)
The program, through the Program Evaluation Committee, must document formal, systematic evaluation of the curriculum at least annually, and is responsible for rendering a written APE. The program must monitor and track each of the following areas: resident performance; faculty development; graduate performance, including performance of program graduates on the certification examination; and program quality. In addition, residents and faculty must evaluate the program in writing and the program must use those assessments (along with other evaluations) to improve the program.

MUSC began using the APE review in January, 2014. The Institutional APE Committee gathers information to make sure the programs are reviewing the information necessary and determines if those efforts to improve the program are satisfactory. The APE Committee issues a report card on all programs.

The Institutional Report Card of all Annual Program Evaluation reviews is attached. (See Appendix III)

Faculty Development
Extensive faculty development activities on campus have taken place within departmental programs, the College of Medicine, Faculty Affairs programs and The Appletree Society. Additionally, the GME Office has been involved with faculty development on the local, regional and national levels.
